A GRAND VIRGINIA DISCOVERY. COME FOUR MONTHS SINCE, our excellent townsman. NAPHTALI EZEKIEL, informed us that he had prepared a hair restorer with which he was experimenting upon his own head, whose top was entirely bald. We saw him two days since, and on the place so bald four months since, a fine crop of hair has sprung up with a vigorous growth. So convinced is Mr. Ezekiel of the efficacy of his discovery that he has named it "THE INFALLIBLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER." Mr. E. is about going into an extensive man-ufacture of an article which is destined to prove of anxious interest to our bald pated friends .- From Richmond Enquirer, December 12th, 1859.

This famous article can now be had of the principal Druggists. Those persons who desire a tine head of hair, have only to use the restorer according to printed directions on the bottle. Those who have any doubts of its efficacy, can have them removed in a short time, by using the INFALLI-BLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER, proving that it is all that it is claimed to be.

Wholesale depot for orders, 69 Main Street. N. EZEKIEL.

I, N. FZEKIEL, take oath on the Holy Bible, that I have been bald for the past 12 years, and have restored my hair by using EZEKIEL'S VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER. This day sworn to before me, by Naphtali Ezekiel. Joseph Mayo, Mayor of Richmond. WM. H. LIPPITT, sole Agent for Wilmington, N. C.

At a regular meeting of Lafayette Lodge, No. 83, of A. Y. M., held in Jacksonville, Unslow County, on Saturday the 14th inst., upon the announcement of the death of Bobert F. Williams, a member of said Lodge, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, Our Allwise Creator and just Disposer of all events, has been pleased, in the plentitude of his power, and the fulfillment of his will, a third time within the short space of six months, to send among us that terrible but certain Visitor, Death; and to remove from among us our worthy and respected Brother, Robert F. Williams: Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Williams, we have lost a worthy member of our Praternity, and the world at large an honest man; and, while we mourn his loss, as well as those who have so recently preceded him, we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who "doeth all things well," and patiently await the summon of him who shall be the next object of our fraternal grief. Resolved, That in accordance with the established usages of Masonry we will repair to the grave of our deceased Brother and there perform the usual in eral ceremonies. Resolved, That as a further testimony of our regret, we will wear the usual badge of mounting for thirty days.

Breckinridge and Lane Ratification Meeting. At a meeting of the Democracy of Cleveland couny, held in Shelby on Thursday, 12th of July, to ratify the nominations of Jno. C. Breckinridge and Jos. Lane, on motion of A. W. Burton, the meeting was organized by calling Dr. J. E. Osborne to the Chair, and appointing William M. Blanton as Secretary.

A. W. Burton explained the object of the meeting in one of his most sterling Democratic speeches, which prepared the meeting for the following preamble and resolutions. Then S. A. Durham arose and made a high-House in Wilmington, on the fourth Monday after the fourth toned national Democratic speech, and solicited his felscriber at Lenox Castle, N. C., or Samuel R. Ireland at Monday in September next, then and there to appear, or low-citizens to the support of Breckinridge and Lane, and introduced and read said resolutions: Whereas, In the present state of political excitement and division of parties, there is great danger of the "Irrepressible conflict" of the Black Republicans being brought about or the odicus and obnoxious doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty '' forced upon the South, and the consequent overthrow and distruction of her rights, and institutions, it is necessary for all constitutional men to openly and unequivocally avow their principles, therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st. That we strongly and severely censure and deprecate the wilful and corrupt attempts of the Doug-lasites, to ignore the constitutional rights of the South and and obnoxious to them. Resolved, 2d. That we heartily and fully endorse and approve of the action of the delegates both at Charleston and Baltimore by promptly withdrawing from the convention upon the refusal to adopt the majory platform which recognizes the constitutional rights of the South in the Territories, and wherever else the jurisdiction of the General Government extends.

Resolved, 3d. That we recognize John C. Breckinridge as the only true and regular candidate of the National Constitutional Democracy for the Presidency of the United States, and Jos. Lane as our only true and regular candichanan, we recognise a true and trustworthy statesman, whose large experience and patriotism are co-existent with the best interests of the whole country.

Resolved, 5th. That our chief executive, the Hon. John W. Ellis, is eminently entitled to the confidence and gratitude of every citizen for his ability, patriotism and devotion to the best interest of the State, and that we do hereby pledge him our active co-operation agains the Opposition in heir insidious attempt, by overthrowing time-honored compromises and constitutional compacts to deceive the people and grasp the spoils of office. Thereupon, H. Cabaniss addressed the meeting for a in behalf of the Constitutional Democracy and in opposition to Squatter Sovereignty and fanaticism. On motion of H. Cabaniss, the foregoing resolutions were unanimously adopted. On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be pubished in the Western Democrat, and Raleigh Press. and that all the papers in the State supporting the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane be requested to copy.
